

Moving Forward with Your Money

What You'll Learn

1. How helpful financial information can lead to better money decisions
2. Why learning helps you move forward with your money
3. How people who succeed with money—and in most areas of their life—are always learning

Talk About It

Ask your teenager:

- Where do you learn about managing your money?
- How do you act on what you've learned about making positive money choices?
- What else would you like to learn about managing your money?
